PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Cannabidiol, abbreviated as CBD, is a naturally occurring component of the Cannabis sativa agricultural hemp plant. CBD is a non-psychoactive part of the plant that has been shown to have positive effects on the body. Through the endocannabinoid system, CBD works to maintain balance and promote overall health and wellness with regulating effects on the various other systems - nervous, digestive, immune, metabolic, and more - of the body.

Recently legalized in the United States by the 2014 & 2018 Farm Bills, our 100% THC free CBD has been formulated into this joint and muscle rub so you can apply relief directly where it needs to be.
