

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Some Sandalwood varieties are becoming endangered or close to extinction due to overharvesting. In an effort to help maintain these sacred trees while delivering high quality Sandalwood essential oil, we united Sandalwood from around the world to create our Sustainable World Blend.

Sandalwood is yellowish in color and can be quite heavy. It is a major constituent of many perfumes and fragrances as it retains its aroma over a long time. In India, it is also known as Chandan. Its sweet and balsamic fragrance is quite enriching and calming. Sandalwood in aromatherapy is utilized in Chinese medicine and Ayurveda, which is the Indian healing science.
