The earnings examples, income claims, and lifestyle representations made in this document are not guarantees and are not necessarily representative of the income, if any, that an Advisor can or will earn through a PURELY™ business. As an independent business owner, your results and actual earnings will vary based on your individual efforts, customer base, time spent working the business, expenses, and other factors. For more information about what you can expect to earn as a PURELY™ Advisor, please review our Income Disclosure Statement. <https://bepure.ly/disclosure-statements/>

BACK OFFICE

The online operations center for your business lets you setup parties, enter orders, track sales, review training, stay updated with the latest news, and so much more! Login using the link from your welcome email or by visiting the bepure.ly homepage.

SPONSOR

Your sponsor is the person who invited you to be a PURELY™ Advisor. You enrolled under them and are part of their downline. You can be a sponsor too and build your own downline by asking others to join and share in the success of running their own business!

PERSONAL VOLUME (PV)

Your Personal Volume (PV) includes your own personal purchases, orders you place on behalf of your customers, and orders your customers place directly with the company through your e-commerce store. Host rewards, business supply orders and other credit redemptions do not count towards your personal volume.

PURE PERKS

Our preferred customer program includes free shipping and more great rewards for setting up a monthly recurring order. This is a great way for customers to always have the PURELY™ products they need in a convenient, easy to manage way.

ACTIVE

The word “active” refers to your month-to-month performance with PURELY™. An Advisor must have a minimum of $200 PV to be considered active for the month and to earn downline commissions.

CANCELLED

Advisors who do not maintain a minimum amount of work in their business can be cancelled. When an Advisor is cancelled, he or she is removed from the organization and loses his or her downline.

To prevent cancellation, you must have $750 in PV every rolling twelve months. At the end of each month listed on the left, we will evaluate the activity during the previous dates listed on the right to determine if an Advisor should be cancelled.
